

TUFS G-COE Postgraduate Conference on Learner Corpora

Date: 14 March, 2011

Venue: Room 304, The Research Institute for Languages and Cultures of Asia and Africa ("ILCAA", "AA-ken") , Tokyo University of Foreign Studies

Program:

9:30 – 9:50	Registration
9:50	Greetings (Yukio Tono, MC: Taku Kaneta)
10:00-10:35	Kosuke DOI	Criterial features for English: An approach from Threshold 1990
10:35-11:10	Taku KANETA	Bilingual dictionaries in L2 writing: a corpus-based approach
11:10-11:20	COFFEE BREAK
11:20-11:55	Emi TAKAMORI	Self-repair in spontaneous speech- a comparative study between native Japanese speaker and Spanish learner of JSL
11:55-12:30	LI Wenhe	A corpus-based analysis of linking adverbials in Chinese learner's spoken English
12:30-13:40	LUNCH
13:40-14:15	Mayumi KITAMURA	Development of Japanese EFL college students' English writing skills: -An investigation of linguistic features of essays-
14:15-14:50	Mariko NOMURA	Variability in articles in Japanese EFL learners' spoken and written production: A learner corpus-based approach
14:50-15:25	ZHANG Huiping	Corpus-based study on middle school English teachers' classroom discourse markers
15:25-15:35	COFFEE BREAK
15:35-16:10	Lin Zhengjun	An empirical study of multimedia teaching and interaction in Chinese middle school English classes
16:10-16:45	UCHIDA Tomio	Use of multi-word verbs by non-advanced EFL learners – Focusing on common verb + particle combinations–
16:45-16:55	COFFEE BREAK
16:55-17:25	Yan ZHOU	An investigation into "for + NP" structure in ACE and CLEC and the application for grammar pattern identification and grammar learning
17:25-18:00	MURAKOSHI Ryoji	Development of the use of adverbial clauses in Japanese EFL learners' writing
18:00 -18:10	Closing (Yukio Tono)

- Presentation will be 20 min. + 15 min. discussion

- All the ICCI project researchers will attend the conference and give comments.